BOY'S BASKETBALL

1946 and 1947 has seen Franklin put on the court one of the best teams in the school's history. The loss of Cecil Hill, June Key, and Osler Martin from last year's team by graduation and the Army was made up by the entrance of two ex-service men, Alton Phillips and Buster Nichols. Also from the retu[r]ned service men's group came Norris Hall who made a fine alternate at center when Nichols, the regul[a]r center was out. Soon after the season opened, Co-captain Owen Stone was advised to give up the game because of an ailing leg. Phillips, the other co-captain did a most excellent job at forward. With Herman Nichols at center, Alton Phillips and Baxter Smith at forward position, and Billy White and Billy Belton at guard position, the Cardinals had a first five that was hard for the opposition to stop. The team was lacking in height, but this deficiency was made up for by speed and deception of all players. Coach Hiatt had a second five that was only slightly less effective in competion than the first. These were Norris Hall, Buster Nichols, Norris Hodge, Wayne Frye, and Junior Draughn. A third string team was substituted frequently when the going was not too tough which was composed of Buster Edwards, Wade Frye, Benton Wagoner, Albert McHone, and Bobby Holder.

In planning and arranging the season's schedule, Coach Hiatt made it a point to try to arrange games with strong team records. Consequently, there were few soft and easy games. This constant going against tough opposition was a decided factor in bringing the team along to a peak of strenght. During the pre-tournament schedule, only two games were lost both of these to the state champion Pilot Mountain team. By tournament time, the Cardinals were at their peak. They lost an over-time period game in the finals of the county tournament to Pilot Mountain. In the Yadkin Valley tournament, Franklin boys fought it out in the finals with Pilot Mountain, and, in one of the fastest, cleanest, and best games of the year, won sweet revenge by downing Pilot's team by a one point margin in an extra period. In the state race for class B teams, Franklin lost to Clemmons, who, in turn went down before Pilot Mountain in the final game of the Northwest Tournament at Reynold's High Gymnasium in Winston Salem. In the Journal-Sentinel Tournament, the Cardinals of Franklin breezed through to the quarter finals. In this game against the strong quint from Children's Home, Franklin was considerably off form and lost by the largest margin of the season. Children's Home went on to the finals and lost to King boys.

Notwithstanding the few tough losses that the team suffered, it was a good year for Coach Hiatt and his red-clad, hard-fighting team. The boys who made up this year's squad can rest assured that it was one of Franklin's best years in basketball. The fine spirit of sportsmanship that was exhibited throughout the season, the gentlemanly conduct of the players on or off the court, and the excellent record of scholarship of all squad membere makes it a season to be remembered with pride.

GIRLS BASKETBALL

Back from last year's sextette came Louise Parker Parthena Slate, and Nancy Gordon. Also back from squad representation was Betty Hutchens Lost to the team was Geneva Hicks who had been the chief reliance of Miss Kendall for three years. Coach Newsome began with these returned players and added to them Ruby Beasley, Annie Laurie Lambert, and Helen Galyean. Entering the school from Lowgap was Polly Worell, one of the fastest forwards in Surry County last year. Incidentally, it may be said that Polly lived up to her past record and played a wonderfull final season.

The team came along well in practice and played against the strongest opposition that could be found in Surry County and nearby Virginia schools. The team reocrd showed about an even break in games won and lost, but Beit said to the credit of the girls who played that nearly all the games lost were lost by very small margins. In the Surry County tournament, Franklin girls played three games, each one of which went into an extra period. The last game was won by Flat Rock in a second over-time period by a score of one point. Flat Rock went ahead and won the tournament easily be defeating Elkin girls in the finals.

In the Yadkin Valley Tournament. Franklin girls were not seeded and came up against the strong Sparta team in the first game. This game proved to be one of the best of the tournament Sparta winning by a score of 32 to 26. It was this same Sparta Team which went on to win over Flat Rock in the final game of the tournament.

In the Journal-Sentineo tournament, Franklin girls played three games and lost to one of the strongest contenders for the championship. Oak Hill, of Caldwell County.

Besides the thrilling and close tournament play of Franklin girls, there were certain other contests that stand cut. One was the game with the county district title holdays of Blue Ridge across the line in Virginia. In one of the finest displays of team work and skill of the entire season. the home team won by a substantial margin. Another close game was taken from Francisco girls, one of Stokes County's best girls' team. Also, it was a pleasure to break even with the Westfield team by beating them on the home court and losing on the Westfield court.

Members of the class of 1947 did good job in basketball for their Alma Mater. Outstanding was the work of Slate who was named for county All-Star and Yadkin Valley Conference All-Star. Worrell, who was county All-Star, and widely mentioned for honors in the Yadkin Valley tournament and the Journal-Sentinel tournament, Nancy Gordon who played consistently good ball as guard all the year. Louise Parker, who was one of the fastest girl forwards in the Northwest, and Betty Hutchens, whose height at times served to give her a tremendous advantage over smaller guards.

The other members of the sauad did well Beasley, Lambert, Golding, Nichols, and Bunker Two other seniors were dependable and hard-playing when called upon. These were Margaret Blackburn and Helen Galyean.

Coach Newsome has done a good job his first year in a difficult spot. While much good material is being lost by graduation, it is evident that sufficient new material is coming along to give promise of a fine team in 1947-1948.

1947 CHEERLEADERS

"Smartest things on the court". That was a remark that was frequently heard about the 1947 edition of Franklin Cheerleaders as they presented themselves before the cheering sections at the games at home and at the several tournaments that Franklin teams entered. When the regular teams were able to secure their bright and flashy scarlet uniforms, the cheerleaders found themselves out of style as far as color was concerned. Since materials were scarce for making uniforms, the cheerleaders were all remorse because they could not, for a time, find uniforms to match those of the teams. It was decided that the Cheerleaders could sponsor the annual get-together dinner for Scouters and their wives to pay for the new outfits, if they could be found. The Cheerleaders were willing to furnish skirts and trousers if the funds could provide for the jackets. A search was begun that let all the way around the country to find the scarlet jackets. Finally some were located in satin way up in New York. They were duly ordered in the proper sizes, the Cheerleaders provided the other parts of the uniforms, and then they flashed out before the cheering sections with plenty of dash and color.

Those who were acting in the capacity of advising sponsors were Mrs. Starling, Mrs. Jarvis, Mrs. Broome, and Mrs. Laughridge. All these, and others were responsible for the outfitting of the squad and the leadership that gave inspjration and taught a high quality of sportsmanship to the student body.

The Cheerleaders were Katherine Blackburn, Wilma Frances Broome, Mary Anne Nichols, Frances Quesinbury, Frank Miller, and Billy Overby. Be it said to the credit of the group that they did a most excellent job. Much credit must go to them for the school's reputation of being able to take our wins and our losses with a smile. Also, it can be said that the Cheerleaders never let the teams down. No matter whether they were winning or losing, the Cheerleaders always stayed behind the teams until the final whistle blew. So here's fifteen Rahs For the Rah, Rah girls and boys from good old Franklin.

TRACK AT FRANKLIN

For several years Franklin High School, under the capable leadership of Coach Hiatt, has placed especial emphasis on track and field events in the physical education set-up. Last year was one of the best years in the school's track history. Both girls' and boys' teams won first places in the county meet and in the Lions Club meet that was held in Mount Airy. Beautiful trophies were won for the school in both Meets.

This year the school is without the services of Cecil Hill, Keith Gant, Osler Martin and Randolph Golding among the boys and it also misses the points that might be added by Geneva Hicks and Jackie Golding.

There are Herman Nichols, Norris Hodges, and Billy White, Louise Parker, Nancy Gordon and Wonda Golding. All of whom will have an opportunity to earn places on this year's team. Who the other members will be can not yet be told, for the try-outs are not yet being held as this publication goes to press. However, it is quite certain that Alton Phillips, will be in for dashes and hurdles. The grammar grades can by counted on to put out as strong a team as they did last year. So Franklin should be in the with strong defenses for their two crowns which they hold from last year.

It is a credit to the physical education department that the school annually has more competition for individual positions on the track squads than for any other sport.

4-H CLUB

One of the oldest and most active of the student organizations at Franklin is the 4-H Club. It has carried on an interesting and varied program throughout the year. Being the club with the largest membership, it is but natural that some of its members would have been honored in their work. Last September Billy Smith exhibited the Grand Champion Guernesy in the Lions Club Junior Dairy Show. Other exhibitors who rated near the top in their classes were Nancy Beamer and Ed. Southern. The year previous Randolph Golding and Wilma Frances Broome Exhibited claves in the blue ribbon class of the Elkin Fat Stock show. Last year under the leadership of Wilma Frances Broome as president and Mrs. Ralph Cooke as faculty advisor, the Club sponsored a very successful 4-H Fair. The act was repeated this year with Frank Miller as president. Exhibits at these local fairs have been of such quality as to justify their being shown at the annual county fair.

Soon after the beginning of this year's work it became necessary to divide the group into a senior unit. More than 150 members are included in the two groups. Each member is required to carry a project and good progress is being made with these.

Last year the club was honored by having had one of its members selected for county health queen. Nancy Gordon made a beautiful queen and their high rating contestants were members of her court at the county coronation. At this event, Franklin club was featured in dancing the minuet. This feature will be repeated this year.

GLEE CLUB

Membership in the Glee Club is conditioned only upon a love for music and a willingness to try to sing. Franklin students have responded nobly to the urge to express themselves in song, and it has not been difficult to secure as many members for the Club as could very well be trained.

The Glee Club has distinguished itsself by giving a Christmas program, by furnishing entertainment at various public assemblies, and by furnishing commencement music.

This year, under the able leadership of Dr. Robert Waterman Stevens, the group has shared his rich experiences and has responded to his splendid leadership. For many years Dr. Stevens has directed and taught some of the nations best singing groups. His influence is strong with children of all grades and all ages. The tiny tots of the first grade sections respond well to his capable teaching, while those boys and girls who have had much more experience and training are equally inspired. At the rendering of the Circus by the first grades, Dr. Stevens fitted the music to accompany the program to moods of the circus activities and a fine time was had by both participants and spectators.

The Glee Club will continue to function as an organization to add zest and pleasure to the life of the school and community.

The refreshment committee is made up of Wayne Jarrell chairman; with Owen Stone and Janice Blackburn Pauline Hall was selected as reporter.

During the winter the activities of the club have been somewhat limited on account of the adverse weather conditions and irregular schedules, but with the opening of spring greater enthusiasm is being shown Since it is a new club at the school it is a sort of pioneer and it has many possibilities in store for it in the future

GIRL SCOUTS IN 1946-1947

The Girl Scouts Troop No. 9 was organized in the Franklin community in 1944. It has been sponsored each year by the local home demonstration club. First Troop Committeemen were Mrs. W. R. Caudle, Mrs. Joe Hall, Mrs. Frank Beamer, Mrs. Howard Jones, and Mrs. Posey Marion These directors have always been ready to serve the troop in any capacity that they were able. Sixteen girls joined the troop the fjrst year and Much progress was made under the direction of Scout leaders Mrs. Ruth Fourqurean. Activities such as Hikes, swimming parties, weiner roasts, and over-night outings were enjoyed thoroughly. At the beginning of the next year the member ship was increased to twenty-three, and sixteen girls were working on proficiency badges. The troop came along nicely under the leadership of Miss Adelaide Bunker. The girls did their part for their country during these war years by assisting in all drives conducted in the community toward the war effort. In 1946 the Scouts were under the leadership of Mrs. B. A. Jarvis. On Stunt night they won second prize with a Mexican dance which was coached and directed by Miss Adelaide Bunker and Miss Christine Webb. Prize money was put away for use on a summer camping trjp. This happy occassion occurred early in July. Miss Bunker. Miss Mabel Tickle, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Carter accompanied the troop to Fairystone Park. It was a week of delighful activities which included swimming. hiking, boat riding, and the good old art of cooking and eating.

In the Fall an Enjoyable outing was had by going to Indian Rock for a hike and a dinner party afterward. The troop was led by Miss Ora Lena Boyd.

Christmas parties have been held each year, and these have helped to make Christmas seem more real and more happy for all. Individual members continue to make progress, the membership is increasing, and the Girl Scout movement is becoming a fine part of our school program at Franklin.

Franklin School is happy to be sponsor of Troop No. of Boy Scouts. Few troops have made more progress than this, and much of the progress is due to the efficient leadership of Mr. J. C. Hiatt, Scoutmaster, The present year finds Mr. Hiatt with an able assistant in the person of Mr. R. C. Wiggins. The record of advancement of the individual members is excellent. There are many Star and Life Scouts in the troop despite the fact that the troop is young. Four members have only to complete life saving examinations to become Eagle Scouts.

The various patrols meet regularly with their leaders and plan their outside activities. All patrols are experienced in the art of camping, and on inspection they have all rated high in this particular. Frequent hikes and outings are taken by patrols or by the whole troop.

The Scout Committee have always rendered loyal service. Notable among these Scouters are Mr. B. A. Jarvis, Mr. Robert Jones, Mr. Joe Hall, and Mr. Alton Leonard. This year, fathers of some of the boys are the Troop Committeemen. Mr. Caleb Allred and Mr. Bill Meadows are new members of the committee.

One of the finest services rendered by the Scouts is in their duty at the school building on program nights. There has never occurred a theft or a property damage when the Scouts were on duty.

Franklin School is proud of its Scout Troop, and the editor is happy that several members of the class of 1947 are among the troop membership.

VALEDICTORY MEMORIES

To the valedictorian of the class falls the task of expressing a farewell from the Senior Class.

But, a farewell does not have to be sad, because memories of the days, weeks, and years spent here at Franklin will as the years come and go become happier and more priceless.

As we look back on our school days many memories will always be with us: Memories of our parents, how they encouraged us, sacrificed for us, and became a big factor in our becoming Seniors of Franklin. May we never fail them or lower the standards they have given us.

Tonight we go back to the various communities we represent, but Franklin School and the momories of the days spent here will be a beacon light to us. Our school must ever be a representative institution of the communities it serves. The Seniors know tonight better than ever, that the patrons of this institution have been another factor in this milestone we have reached as Seniors of 1947.

To my classmates comes a clearer realization of what the memories of our class ideals really mean in everyday life: our colors, those of the rainbow, representing truths, purity knowledge, courage and loyalty: our flower the sweet pea, symbolic of modesty more of which is needed in everyday life; our motto, "We build the ladder by which we climb" and we feel that as we've worked on that ladder through our school days and have placed in the workmanship some excellent timber. We are realizing lessions learned in books and out of books, friends we have made, but greatest of all, a store of memories to carry with us as we leave our Alma Mater-Franklin High School.

So friends, you see it is sad to say farewell for your class, but we are happy because of the wealth of memories we take with us of our high school days.

Alice Webb

SALUTATORY

Friends, it is with pleasure that I greet you, from each member of my class. I bring a sincere welcome to our class night program, "Attic Memories".

Tonight marks in a manner an end to our days at Franklin High School. Tonight, we are going to endeavor to show you briefly, many happy memories of days gone by. In short, give you a resume" of our our school life. Come, go with us back down the lane of memories-back to when we were green ignorant Freshmen placing the first round in our high school ladder-into that year of Sophomore-When we thought we knew it all-Then into memories of Junior year, when we began to grow up-and last and most important, our Senior year. Oh! I really wish you could live with us as we review these memories as a class for the last time.

Among our memories are our parents, our faculty, our principal, our school and class mates, each have a very important place-but so many things will never be forgotten lessons never learned, some learned, practices in the gym, play practice, chorus, parties. Oh! All these rush on us tonight as we try to welcome you to this, our last appearance at Franklin.

Keep in mind as we share these memories with you, none of these would have been possible without our friends, our parents and faculty. We owe more than we realize to each of you. You have spent years working, training yourselves to guide us. You have worked hard, been patient and understanding and tonight as we try to share our memories with you we hope to prove worthy. We are beginning to comprehend what real friends you have been.

We are so glad you are here tonight-a visible evidence of your faith and hope in us. May our program show you that you have not worked in vain.

Again, may I express a sincere, cordial, welcome from the Senior class of 1947. Come, enjoy the memories of our High School days with us. We are happy you came, we hope you enjoy our visit down memory lane.

Loretta Phillips

CLASS HISTORY

"A lot of reality, a bit of mystery, and you have history." The above quotation is true of the history of the senior class. Our four years in Franklin High School has been filled with many realities and ever so often a bit of mystery crept into our activities. The history of my class is divided into four chapters.

Chapter One. Freshman year, 1943-1944.

Our career at Franklin marked its beginning in the fall of 1943 when 69 green, ignorant, questioning boys and girls entered Franklin High School and were given the appelation of Freshmen. Due to our number and our need of guidance, we were placed inthe care of two home room teachers, Miss Johnson and Miss Bray. We really didn't know what it was all about but we soon set ourselves to the tasks of finding out what it meant to be students of Franklin High School. We realized the first place was in the class room, but there were many other extra-curricula activities which influence all of us. We formulated our class organization, for we knew we needed student leadership as well as faculty guidance. The school soon found the freshman taking a leading part in athletics, especially basket-ball; freshman names were found on the staff of the Hi-Life, freshman voices were heard in the Glee Club. By the spring of 1944 much of our greeness had disappeared and we were ready to be Sophomores.

Chapter Two, Sophomore Year 1944-1945.

When we returned in the fall of 1944 we numbered 58. We were typical Sophomores. We thought we knew it all, we had lots of fun watching the freshmen as they became acclimated, forgetting that we so recently were in their places. In our Sophomore year we were soon placed under the capable leadership of Miss Louise Kendall and Miss Virginia Coltrane, who by their example made us realize that we were not exalted sophomores only, but students.

In athletics Owen Stone and Wayne Frye made first in basketball. Owen Stone was assistant Editor of the school paper. On the staff were Albert Lawrence, Louise Parker, Wayne Jarrell, John Ralph Creed and Nancy Gordon.

Albert Lawrence was used in the Senior Play "Lena Rivers". Many Sophomores again took part in the Glee Club.

The Sophomore class found themselves with a new principal, Mr. H. S. Broome, former principal of White Plains High School, Before the year was over we selected as class officers:

President.....Louise Parker. Vice President.....Mary Nichols
Secretary.....Osler Martin Treasurer.....Norris Jarrell

With their organization and leadership we ceased to be "Know all Sophomore" and became grown up Juniors.

Chapter Three, Junior Year 1945 1946.

Due to various and sundry reasons we had only 37 members when we re-entered Franklin as Juniors in the fall of 1945. Our home room teacher was Miss Louise Kendall. Our class officers were.

President.....Louise Parker Vice President.....J. T. Coe
Secretary.....Margaret Blackburn Treasury.....Wayne Jarrell

Who will ever forget that American History Class, but most of us survived, but that course was certainly a proof of the "Survival of the fitest." Nancy Gordon, one of our Junior girls was selected and crowned Health Queen of Surry County.

Two of the first five places on the Boys' Basketball team were filled by Juniors. Owen Stone and Wayne Frye. Owen was elected captain of the team thar year. On the girls' team four of the first six places were filled with Juniors, Louise Parker, Nancy Gordon, Bernelle Nichols and Parthene Slate. Louise and Nancy took part in track, and won four 2nd places in the county meet.

To try to help publish the school paper the following Juniors were elected to the staff of the Hi-Life.

Owen Stone ..... Editor in Chief
Louise Parker ..... Assistant Editor
Wade Frye ..... Sports Editor
John R. Creed ..... Business Manager
Albert Lawrence ..... Assistant Business Manager
Nancy Gordon ..... Reporter

We gave as our Junior play "Three Days of Grace" under the direction of Mrs. Locklear. We enjoyed presenting it, and believe it was received by an appreciative audience.

Marshals were Alice Webb, J. T. Coe, Loretta Phillips, Owen Stone, Albert Lawrence, Wayne Jarrell, Louise Parker, Nancy Gordon, June McCraw and Bernelle Nichols.

Chapter Four Senior Year 1946-1947

Our Senior Year, the Climax of our high school career, we numbered 33, several G. I. Boys joined our class: Alton Phillips, Grady McHone, Norris Hall, Buck Nichols, Charles Smith, Conrad Haynes, and Clellan Ramey. One girl, Polly Worrell, came from Lowgap High School to do extra Work toward college entrance.

We knew that we must be careful in the selection of our class officers and we thought carefully before we elected the following to be our leaders:

Albert Lawrence ..... President
Loretta Phillips ..... Vice President
Alton Phillips ..... Secretary
J. T. Coe ..... Treasurer
Margaret Blackburn ..... CheerLeader.

Every Senior enjoyed going to Chapel Hill to join with Seniors from all over North Carolina in Celebrating Senior Day.

On the staff of Hi-Life many positions were filled by Seniors. Arlyss Smith was Editor in Chief. Assistant Editor, Alton Phillips, Executive Editor, Wayne Jarrell; Business Manager Owen Stone Assistant Albert Lawrence and Grady McHone, Advertising Managers Louise Parker and Janice Blackburn, Sports Editors; Nancy Gordon and Wade Frye, Circulation Manager Norris Hall Assistants Foy Nookester, Margaret Blackburn; Typist; Loretta Phillips and J. T. Coe, and News Editors, Dorthy Thomas and Connie Mae Galyean.

We wonder who will take the place of Alton Phillips, Owen Stone, Wayne Frye, Wade Frye, Buck Nichols, Norris Hall, Polly Worrell, Louise Parker, Nancy Gordon, Parathene Slate, Betty Hutchins, Helen Galyean, and Margaret Blackburn on the Basketball Team.

Our boys went into the county finals, being beaten by Pilot Mountain in that tournament. Our boys won the Yadkin Valley Conference and the Winston-Salem Journal-Sentinal Tournament was won by King, who defeated Children's Home Team. The girls were in the county tournament also they went into the quarter finals of the W. S. J. S. tournament and won two games. This record makes us very proud of our teams.

For our Senior Play we gave, "For Pete's Sakes" with the following cast; Albert Lawrence, Owen Stone, Wade Fryet Wayne Jarrel, Arlyss Smith, Nancy Gordon, Louise Parker, Loretta Phillips, Bernelle Nichols, Dorothy Thomas, Hellen Galyean, and Alton Phillips.

What Senior will every forget the Junior Senior Banquet at the Blue Ridge Hotel March 21. The dining hall had been decorated in the rainbow colors of the Senior Class. The occasion president over by the Junior class president Jimmie Shelton and Junior Made excellent hosts. This event will never be forgotten. We felt quite honored; food, fun, music, and flowers, all to make the happy Seniors and Juniors a banquet to remember and one that they enjoyed.

But all good things come to an end and so does the history of the class of 1947 at Franklin High School. As our final appearance at Franklin we gave our Commencemtnt program "Attic Memories" and closed the curtain on our High School Days.

If History repeats itself and I believe it does, Many more Senior Classes will come and go at my Alma Mater-Franklin High School, but none just like my class-the class of 1947.
